

- Lunch time supervision is provided by morning camp staff for children participating in two half-day camps (meals are not provided).
- Morning camp staff will escort your child to the afternoon program at participating institutions.
- This means you can drop your child off at the morning camp and pick your child up at the afternoon camp.
- Contact information for registration is listed with each camp description.

Why is this a great deal for families?

Discovery - Exploration - Experience Balboa Park Summer Camp 2014

Combine two half-day programs to create a full-day of summer fun in Balboa Park!
Please refer to the back side of this brochure for the half-day camp program schedule.
Important note: Half-day camp registration begins March 3rd!

To register for camps:

- Read each institution program description and choose what best fits your child's interest and grade level.
- Make a list of back-up programs before you call to register, just in case your child's first choice is sold out.
- Please contact each institution directly for camp registration.
- Please notify each institution if your child is participating in the full-day collaboration.
- Centralized registration is not provided.
- Additional program information, including camp descriptions and registration fees, can be found by visiting each web site or by calling each institution.
